Final Disposition Form (Form 1.998)

Official Text, Fillable

Fla. R. Civ. P. Form 1.998 - typeset from the official text, April 1, 2026 edition

TrialVector™ · Florida litigation kit by LegalDraft Technologies LLC

The final disposition form: case style, amount of final judgment, and the means-of-final-disposition checklist with the form's own major categories and subcategories - filed by the prevailing party to report uniform case data.

This kit types the official form's own text. You complete it in your own reader; every choice line is yours, and nothing in this kit selects for you.

TrialVector™, a LegalDraft Technologies LLC publication, is self-help litigation software, not a law firm, and does not provide legal advice. This kit records the answers and choices YOU supply — the questionnaire asks, you decide, the template records; nothing here applies the law to your specific situation, chooses any term for you, or reviews your entries for legal sufficiency. Deterministic, rule-keyed checks published by the platform are information, not advice. Your purchase or use of this kit does not create an attorney-client relationship, and enforcement of anything you sign or serve is always a court's decision. For advice about your circumstances, consult a licensed Florida attorney.

This cover is an informational page and is not part of the schedules, worksheets, or any document you serve or file.

This kit is the official Florida final disposition form, typeset in full from the form's own published text with fill-in fields at the form's own blanks. The Provenance page states exactly where every word came from and how to check.

01 What this form is

The form's own text: it "shall be filed by the prevailing party with the Clerk of Court for the purpose of reporting uniform case data pursuant to Florida Statutes section 25.075."

02 Open in Adobe Acrobat Reader

The free Reader is enough. Type into the fields; click a choice line to place the form's own x. Fields shared with other kits in this line (the caption, the case number) fill themselves from what you typed there.

03 The form's own commands control

The form directs one x for the major category and one for a subcategory if applicable - its own instructions, served verbatim in this kit, define every disposition category.

04 Where judgment is needed, bring counsel

Which category fits, which box is true for your case, and what an answer commits you to are judgment calls - a licensed Florida attorney can review your completed form at any time.

Provenance

Where every word of this form came from — and how to check.

This kit typesets THE OFFICIAL FORM'S OWN TEXT into a fillable document. It is not the court's PDF (Florida publishes the civil forms as rule text, not as statewide fillable files); it is the official text, set by this kit line, with fill-in fields at the form's own blanks.

Rule-text source. The live authority corpus unit FRCP Form 1.998 (the form's verbatim text as published in the Florida Rules of Civil Procedure). The platform's bench re-verifies the fragments this kit prints against that unit.

Official compilation snapshot. April 1, 2026 edition, Florida Rules of Civil Procedure, published by The Florida Bar — file Civil-Procedure-Rules-04-01-26.pdf, SHA-256 f137e6111074d53e5635b9d3055694ecc70ee1ba1f4123f217c4df58f8b491b4.

Check it yourself. The compilation is published at the address below; comparing this kit against the official text is always the right instinct.

What this kit never does. It never selects a category, amount, or answer for you; every choice line is yours. If any entry calls for judgment, a licensed Florida attorney can review your completed form — that review is a decision you make, not one this kit makes for you.

Provenance. This Florida kit was assembled by the TrialVector deterministic kit engine. Authority anchors: Fla. R. Civ. P. Form 1.998, typeset verbatim from the official text; provenance inside. The platform maintains the underlying Florida rules and statutes verbatim in a dual-source, hash-pinned corpus captured from official sources and re-verified on a standing schedule — the corpus is the source; nothing here is quoted from memory.
